Dear Guardians of Young Students,

Thank you very much for your child's/grandchild's interest in learning Japanese embroidery. We will welcome the young students and hope to provide the opportunity to learn the technique, spirit, and history of Japanese embroidery. I hope this will become a meaningful time for each student.

As you can find in the explanation on JEC website, the class is offered to children and grandchildren (ages eight to twenty) of current JEC members. If you are not JEC members, we would like for you to please enroll prior to the class. Please see the attached membership form for more information. Also, please see the registration form for information on the deposit for borrowing embroidery tools. The deadline for registration is June 1, 2008.

Here are the details for the class:

Dates: June 18-21, 2008

Time: 10 am – 12:30 noon

Where: Japanese Embroidery Center, Non-Profit Educational Organization

Qualification: Children and grandchildren (ages eight to twenty) of current JEC members

Please let us know if we can be of any further assistance to you. Thank you, and we look forward to seeing all of you!

In Pursuit of Nuido,
